

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 5, 2013

CONTACT

William L. Weber, Jr.
Executive Director
Professional Resolution Experts
of Michigan, LLC (PREMi)
(248) 644-0077
execdirector@premi.us

PREMi Welcomes Former ICLE Education Director Sheldon Stark

Esteemed Educator and ADR Practitioner Is Newest Addition to Elite Group of ADR Professionals

DETROIT – When lawyers select other lawyers to help them resolve matters through arbitration, mediation, and other alternative dispute resolution processes, experience and effectiveness sits atop the list of factors that must be considered.

With that in mind, Professional Resolution Experts of Michigan (PREMi) strives to assemble the most qualified, most proficient, and most recognized names in the ADR field. With the addition of Ann Arbor attorney Sheldon Stark to its ranks, PREMi continues that mission.

“Shel is one of the most capable and respected lawyers in the state,” said Bill Weber, PREMi’s Executive Director. “We are delighted to have him in the organization, and excited to have him contribute to PREMi being the premier provider of ADR services, training, and advocacy in Michigan.”

Mr. Stark’s forty-year legal career includes program director roles with the Institute of Continuing Legal Education, a position on the faculty of University of Detroit Mercy School of Law and with Harvard Law School’s Trial Advocacy

PRESS RELEASE

Workshop, and a successful private practice focusing on employment discrimination, civil rights, business disputes, and personal injury matters. He was at the forefront of the ADR movement, and has been providing ADR services since the mid-1980s.

Additionally, Mr. Stark has written and contributed to numerous handbooks, practice guides, and articles, and has presented on various topics to countless bar associations, conferences, and continuing legal education seminars in Michigan and across the country. For over a decade, he served as a trainer in ICLE's mediation and advanced mediation training programs, and is responsible for training over 1,000 lawyers and ADR professionals.

Professional Resolution Experts of Michigan, LLC (PREMi) is an association of legal professionals with numerous years of experience in dispute resolution and a large breadth of subject matter knowledge. PREMi's attorneys work with parties in conflict across Michigan and around the country, utilizing creative approaches and processes to achieve meaningful results. More information about PREMi can be found on its website: www.premi.us.

###